LORI DROUIN PROOFING AND POLISHING for Competition Obedience

April 14-15, 2012

9 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Location and hotels: Dog Days, Vancouver, WA

CLICK HERE for a PDF version of this flyer.

Seminar format:

Lori will focus on how to evaluate proficiencies, identify information gaps, and structure constructive challenges. She will have a plan of progression for all the exercises, but the seminar will be shaped by the participants.

- Day one: Establishment of the communication system, heeling, recalls, and Open skills.
- Day two: Understanding, teaching, and proofing of utility skills
- Also included: Attention activities, scenting games, and other opportunities for people to play with quite young dogs, as well as individual work for more advanced dogs.

About Lori:

Lori has been in the sport of obedience for 40 years; having earned 2 OTCHs, a UDX3, 7

UDs, 2 more CDXs and 2 CDs on 7 Shelties, a Dalmation, an Australian Shepherd and 2 Norwegian Elkhounds. She is actively showing her youngest Sheltie for his OTCH and in agility. She is an AKC judge and a columnist for Front and Finish.

Lori has extensive experience instructing students with all breeds.
